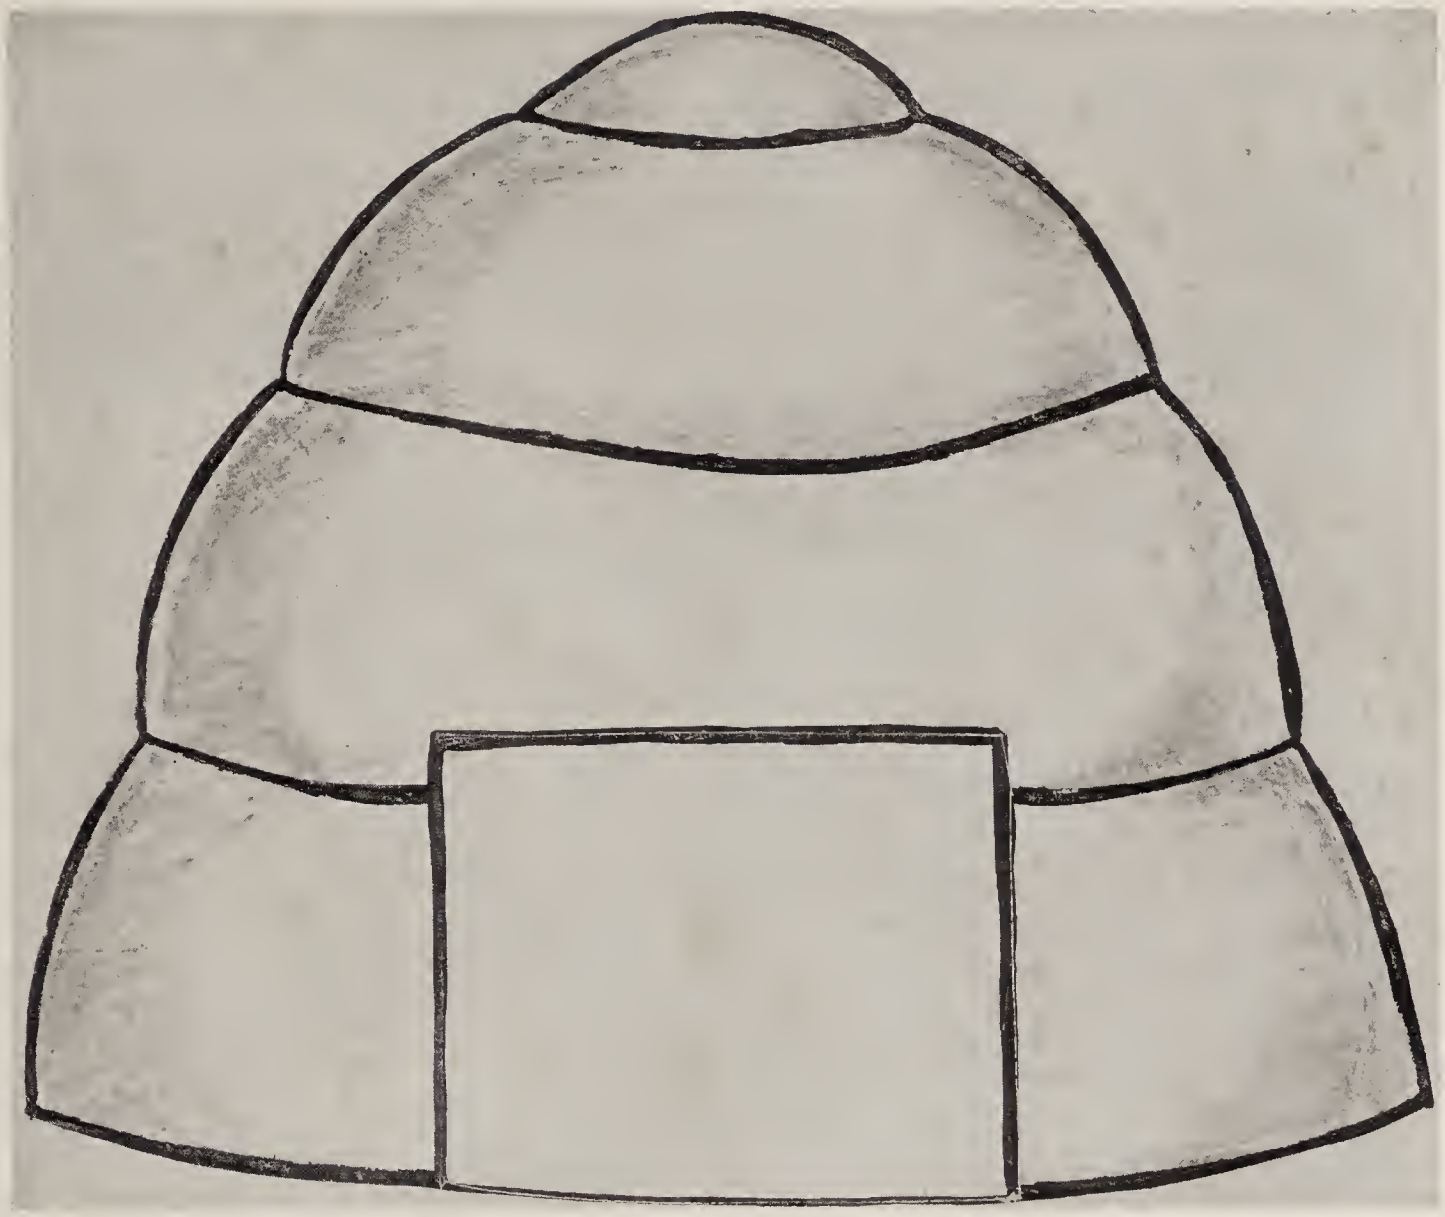
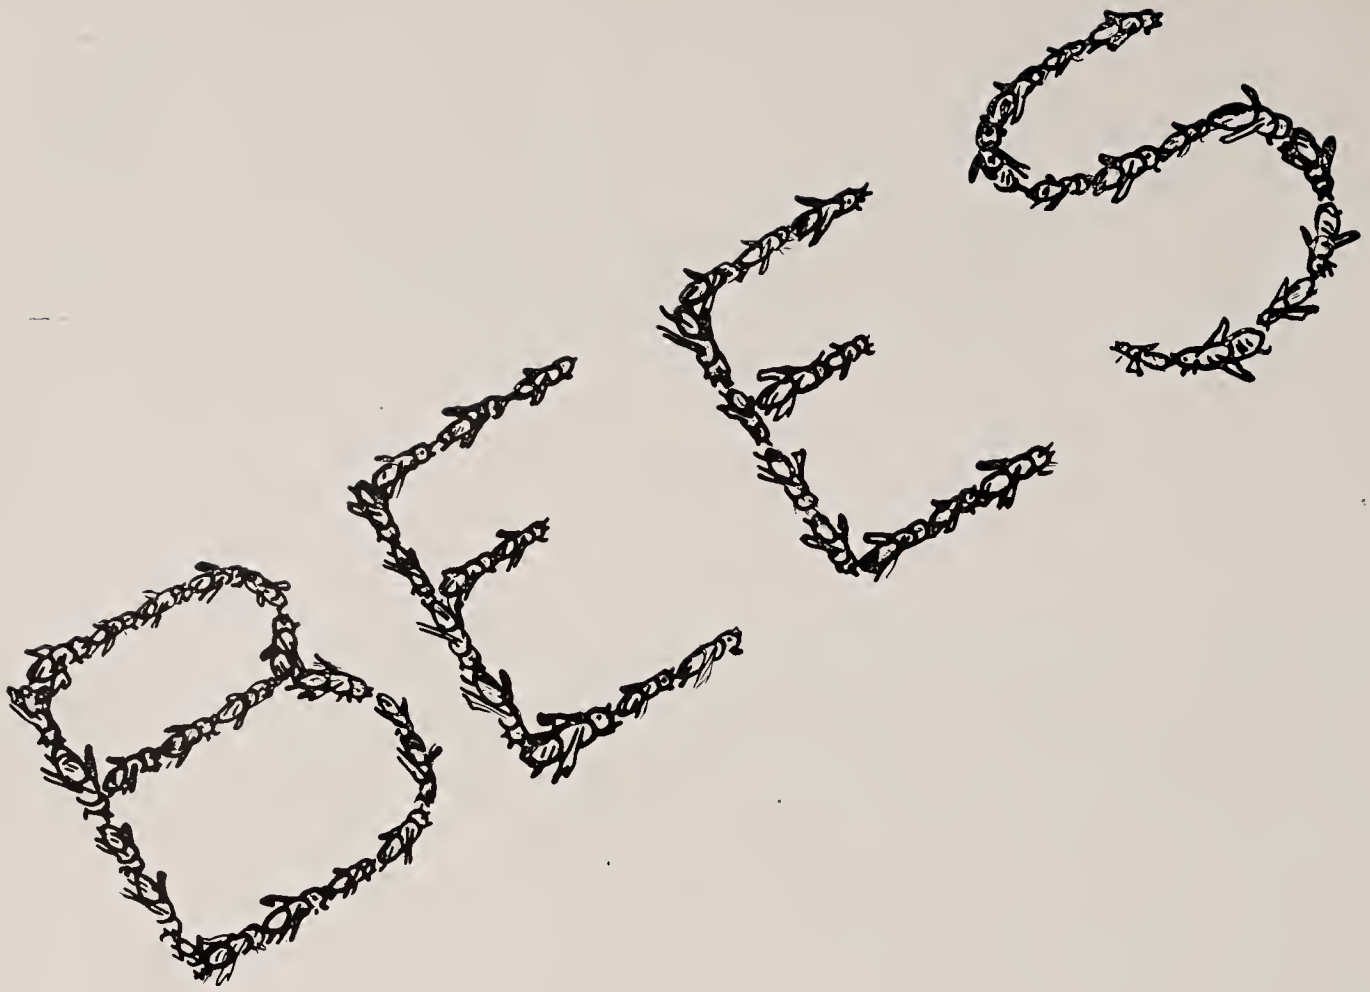
The Medinian



Published:

At Medina High School
In the year of 1948
By the class of 1949



We, the members of the class of 1949 Bees, present this MEDINIAN to the 1948 Senior Bees with the hope that they may find increasing pleasure in referring to its pages for nostalgic memories of happy days with fellow workers at the Big Hive—Medina High.

In addition, may it be a catalogue of the personalities which have become esteemed, of the good times which have been enjoyed together, of the hard work which has been mutually performed, and a chronicle of events which have been of interest.

As this yearbook recalls 1948 as a year of great world events and global crises, so may it also recall the adventure and responsibility and aspirations which those who are graduated feel when standing at the entrance of one of life's greatest experiences—commencement.

Seniors Are Off In A Swarm of Activities!

September, 1944—a big day! Why? Because we began our Freshman year at Medina High, and became officially known as the Class of '48.

That was an exciting year, one full of new experiences, sometimes not entirely pleasant, for we began to realize what a little bit of responsibility can mean.

Studies seemed difficult and grades discouraging until we became adjusted to the routine and perhaps some of us have never quite managed that yet.

Needless to say study wasn't all we did in that big year. There was the fun of actually being invited to all high school activities, and belonging to extra-curricular groups. Everything was so wonderfully inviting we scarcely could decide what we wanted to join, and some of us didn't do much eliminating by the appearance of our past schedules.

Our Sophomore and Junior years passed each more swiftly than the other, and we found ourselves swept deep into a whirlpool of events with little time to evaluate or plan for the future.

Now, as Seniors, we are only too aware that soon it will be over to remain just a memory—a memory of four swell years at M. H. S.

Memories are mostly pleasant things
Things we want to remember
And the ones we have of high school days
Will live on—as a burning ember.
Our Freshman year was one big thrill
Excitement and good times galore
And a new experience with books that proved
That we must study much more.
Our Sophomore year was next in line
And spirits were soaring high
For soon we gained some of the confidence
We'll need as the years go by.

A chance to display our talents came
In the next, our Junior year
With the annual, and prom, and stadium sale
Our ingenuity became very clear.
As Seniors we are working hard
For now we're looking ahead
And cramming these months as full as can be
'Cause the end of this year we dread.
So quickly let us make a toast
As they go fleeting by
To four years full of memories
Gained here—in Medina High.

Senior Scholastic Bees

As of January, 1948, the following seniors stand at the top of their class. In this group of fourteen are the two people who will be the valedictorian and salutatorian of the class of 1948. In alphabetical order they are Caroline Anderson, Betty Balogh, Betty Jo Bauer, Miriam Bricker, Robert Gilsdorf, Colleen Handley, Joan Holdridge, Betty Houseman, Mary C. Newberry, Joyce Parish, Elizabeth Poor, Esther Pritchard, Alice Reutter, Elizabeth Root.

Senior Class Prophecy

If we were to have the 1955 copy of the Podunk Times, which is edited by Mary Newberry, we might find these items:

Robert Scheetz, owner of station SWAK announces a new program of recorded music M.C.'d by a newcomer to the field—Allen Neff. This program will be sponsored by the Sailer School of Dancing and Singing. It is a summer replacement for the popular "Sitzenstock Serenade"—30 minutes of nostalgic accordian melodies sponsored by the R. E. Baker Coal Company.

Starting Thursday, the Barrow Theatres, Inc. will feature that drummin' man, Dick Hinkel and his band with Keith Weber, leading alto sax, and clarinetists, Roger Smith and Ray Hinkel. The band's vocalists, Al Cruthers and Ruth Minto, will not appear but they are replaced by the "Two Bees and a Sting" trio—Jerry Neracher, Daryl Few, and Audrey Kirkpatrick.

Bill McDonnell, assisted by the Chester, Cramer, Carlton Agriculture Bureau of Research, has perfected the Leyda bean, named after Professor Leyda, who found a use for it. Bill Adams, eminent fruit-grower, is the originator of the new Adams apple. The Nettleton-Bloch Experimental Laboratories have developed a new kind of tree without leaves, which will remove the necessity of over-exertion in the fall.

The new Women's Symphony under the direction of Betty Jo Bauer will feature concertmistress Virginia Medley in a new number entitled "Scared So No. 57" by Thom Fisher. Miss Betty Houseman's "Concerta for Oboe, Viola, and Two Saxophones" will be performed by Leona Osborn, Miriam Bricker, Dorothy Rapp, and Dorothy Mersing.

Juniors Are Really Busy Bees!

Having worked together for almost three years, the class of '49 has accomplished many important things.

Highlighting the events of our Freshman year was the fact that we were second in the bond drive. Our Sophomore year brought a very successful Valentine dance and an undefeated and untied Rinkydink team.

During our third year most of the girls belong to the G.A.A. That calls for attendance at the G.A.A. football banquet. A few girls also belong to G.L.C., while the boys take part in many activities such as Hi-Y, football, basketball, baseball, track, and gym teams. The majority of the fellows and girls belong to at least one or more of the musical groups.

The whole class gets together for the prom, the production of the annual, and the selection of our class ring. We sponsored one big party for all of the high school, along with our other parties.

The prom and annual are the biggest things of the year and we all hope that they will be the best ever.

May all students coming up have as much fun as we had.

Sophomores Buzz Along!

We were a normal class and when we swarmed into the hive we were as "green" as any other class. First of all, as is the custom, we elected our officers. Those lucky kids were Ed Dornbirer, president; Frank Mora, vice-president; Dick Parish, secretary-treasurer, and Jim Holden, student council representative.

With that out of the way, we didn't have anything else to do so we planned a class party. Everyone had a swell time.

The fellows went out for football and basketball and made the grade. The girls, not to be slighted, represented us in G.A.A., Y-Teens and many other activities. Thanks to our sponsors, Mr. Linn, Mr. Plank, and Miss Hitzelberger—everything went much better than anyone expected.

Summer just flew by and we found ourselves back in the groove again, but this time not so green. Again we elected officers and this time they were Dick Parish, president; Joyce Anderson, vice-president; Dave Ellis, secretary-treasurer; and Jim Holden, student council representative. For once the girls were lucky and got one of their number into office.

We went out for the same activities as last year, and many more, but we are a modest class. There were a few more class parties and a dance sponsored for the high school. With our sponsors, Mr. Demuth, Miss Clift and Miss Jackson, helping us, we succeeded in climbing another rung of the ladder of success.

Freshmen Start Humming!

On September ninth, a group of unorganized but eager students gathered on the steps of Medina High School. Our group soon became known as the Freshmen, the class of 1951.

At the first gathering of our class we started off by electing class officers.

Now we are planning on the high school party which we will sponsor in February. Also we look forward to the Y-Teen Formal which comes at the end of the year.

Thus far our class history is short but we are planning on three more joyous years of school and are anticipating the events of the future chapters we will write in the history of our class at good old M.H.S.

Football Honors

Never before in Medina football has a player received as wide recognition and publicity as Dean Brubaker.

Dean scored 182 points in eight games of Medina's ten-game schedule, thus setting this year's highest scoring record in the state. He was placed on the All-Southwestern conference first team by the Cleveland Press and he also received honorable mention on the Associated Press All-Ohio Scholastic team. Coach Hollinger and Dean were interviewed by Jimmy Dudley on the W J W radio sports program.

"Bru" has confined his efforts not only to making points but has also played an outstanding game at defense, and at passing and receiving.

A Junior this year, Dean played left halfback and will return next year for an even better season, we hope.

A bad beginning but a wonderful ending is this story in a nutshell.

Captain "Babe" Kemp received a leg injury which kept him out of the game for the entire season.

With thirty-seven boys out for the varsity squad, Medina did not lack size on the line, the average being 176 pounds per player. It was the lack of speed that handicapped the team most.

Medina's first game was played at Fairview on September 12. To their regret they lost 14 to 0. Outrunning their opponents in yardage, Medina made several scoring threats but failed to put the ball over. Meanwhile Fairview took advantage of their breaks and scored twice.

The following week the Medina Bees came back in full stride to upset powerful Rocky River 18 to 9. River scored first in the second period on a short pass and added the extra point by placement. Later River added two more points on a safety. Dean Brubaker, Medina's mighty halfback, scored from the three, the one-half, and the six-yard lines, and Medina played one of its best defensive games of the year, holding River from scoring from the one-yard line for four successive downs.

On October 24, at the Medina stadium, the homecoming game was played. Queen Betty Balogh and her two attendants, Mary Catherine Newberry and Mary Ellen Sailer, reigned over the activities.

Scoring in every quarter Brubaker, Neracher, and Weber, letting no grass grow under their feet, went over the goal line for a total of 40 points. Amherst scored in the first and last quarter and added an extra point by a pass.

It was a wet and muddy night when Medina won the game with one of its oldest rivals, Wadsworth. There were few fumbles and the Bees scored in the first quarter by pure power, "Bru" going over from the four. The next score was also made by Brubaker through the middle. The extra point was made by another plunge by Dean.

In the third quarter a pass from "Bobo" Voshall to Neracher scored our last TD, with a pass from Hetrick to Neracher good for the conversion. Wadsworth's only score came in the last quarter on a long pass.

At the last game of the season Medina piled up its highest score, 65 points, to visiting Akron Hower's 0.

All in all, Medina finished with 8 wins and 2 losses, thus giving the Bees third place in the Southwestern Conference.

Rinkydink Football Season

Review of 1947 Season

COACH RAY THOMAS

The Rinkydinks won only 50% of the games they played this year. However, some of the players looked like some very promising prospects for the immediate future varsity. Due to a split-up schedule the Sophomores who will move up to the varsity did not see the action which they should have seen.

Jimmy Holden was selected as the most outstanding player on the squad. He is very fast, agile, and a good passer. He received the trophy given by Lance and Company for his ability as a player.

Dick Parish is a good, hard runner and tackler and has the traits of Dean Brubaker.

John Schindelholz and Tommy Miner are probably the two most outstanding linemen.

Dallas Yost made a lot of progress during the past season but still lacks speed.

Jack Weidinger and Newton Standen lack the necessary experience. Frank Reutter also can be a good football player with more experience.

A prospect for a good back is Bob Hyde. Fred Smith should be a good pass receiver and runner.

Bob Gardner, a good blocker, and Joe Nagy are two more Sophomores who will be going up to the varsity squad next year and will see whether they have what it takes to continue their football career.

The rest of the squad, made up of Freshmen and junior high players, will carry the name of the Rinkydink football team next fall.

* Overtime

This year's varsity is composed of six seniors and four juniors, and it started the season with a bang by trouncing Fairview 36-20.

The best games of the season were both played with Clearview. In the first one Medina was in the lead until the last minute when Clearview tied the count with a foul shot. In the overtime period they sank one field goal and followed with a foul shot to win over Medina.

In the second game the lead changed hands several times. Medina was ahead 40-36 at half-time. In the final minutes of play Clearview evened the score. During the last minute of the overtime, Kemp's field goal won the game for Medina 58-57.

This year Medina placed fourth in the Southwestern Conference. The Bees also won four straight games, setting a new record.

High scorer of the year was Jerry Neracher with 173 points. Ray Mantz led the Reserves by netting 112 points.

The Reserves ended their season winning 4 and losing 12 games. Most of them were very close with Medina leading until the final minutes of play. Only once were they defeated badly. This was the Fairview game by a score of 48-18.

The best game of the year was the one played against the Clearview Reserves. It ended in a 27-27 tie. Medina forged ahead during the overtime with nine points while limiting their opponents to one. The final outcome was 36-28.

Medina's varsity has improved its game of basketball very much since last year and, with the fine players coming up from the Reserves, should do well next year.

Standing: Mary C. Newberry, Dick Hinkel, Bob Randall, Bob Hamlin, Jean Nichols, Ed White, Doryl Few, Roy Walter, Pat Neuenschwander, Mr. O'Donnell (Director).

This is the organization that takes up so many high school students' noon hour. That's right—it is the Medina High School Concert Band.

Rehearsals start directly after football season is over and continue five days out of every week until school is out.

This fall the band had the honor of playing at the N.E.O.T.A. meeting in Cleveland. It also played at Canal Fulton in the District Band Festival. The band will compete at Kent and has hopes of going to Columbus for the first state contest held since the war. On March twelfth a concert was given. Mr. Ficocelli from Youngstown was the guest conductor.

A Band Parents' Club was organized this year to sponsor such activities as the Donkey Basketball game, which were means to earn money to buy new and better instruments and equipment.

This is the group that you see and hear between acts of school plays and in all the concerts and music festivals. A small number of players from this orchestra made up the group which played for the Minstrel Show given last fall by the Lions Club.

On March 12 Mr. Ficacelli from Youngstown was guest canductor for the archestra as well as for the band. The members af the orchestra had the privilege of having Mr. Seppelin of North Canton wark with them in preparation for the contest at Kent.

At A Game

The Junior Band is made up mostly of sixth, seventh, and eighth graders, with a few high school students in it. Every Monday after school the band practises in the Music Room. This group is used to replace the graduating Seniors of the concert band.

Perhaps the busiest time for this organization was during football season when they marched, with their many majorettes, at the Rinkydink Dads' Night game.

Bees of M. H. S. Marching Band

Under the direction of Vance O'Donnell, the M.H.S. marching band has been very busy this year learning new formations and music.

The band marched at every game and put on the entire half-time show at both the Canton Catholic and Akron Hower games because these schools did not have bands.

Snap was added to its appearance this year with new red ties and a faster marching cadence. In addition, formations were more impressive with lights worn on the band members' hats.

When the band played the fight song, other rousing marches, and the Alma Mater, the student body and community shared the feeling that this group was a big factor in making the football season a real success.

Before two home games the majorettes, dressed as queen bees, led the team, the Bees, from a huge hive through two lines formed by the other M.H.S. bees of the marching band.

Special tribute goes to Thom Fisher, a senior, who has been an outstanding drum major for the past three years. The majorettes, as they appear in the picture, are Mary Ellen Sailer, Lois Cole, Virginia Karshner, Mary Edith Wirkner.

Aahh! What's that music and where's it coming from? Yes, you guessed right—it is the Stardusters and they are playing in the auditorium for one of the school dances.

These music makers played for noon dancing, after home football and basketball games, and for class-sponsored dances, plus many other parties. Other schools also appreciate this swing band as is shown by their many out-of-town engagements.

Choralettes

Pat Neuenschwonder, Lois Lucos, Dorothy Ropp, Jone Abell, Gwen Gibbs, Rebo Show, Ruth Minto, Nancy Burris, Mory Soiler.

The name Choralettes is synonymous with youth, beauty, and good singing. The picture proves the first two points. As for the singing, you must have heard them at one of the football banquets, or the December vocal concert, or perhaps sometime later in the year. Yes, they are a tribute to Medina High.

Harmonaires

Daryl Few, Keith Weber, Beverly Hough (accomponist), Allen Neff, Jack Anderson.

Carrying on the tradition of fine quartets in Medina High is this year's edition of the Harmonaires. They made their first appearance in October with the local talent minstrel show, and since then have performed at numerous school and community functions. This group is one of the most popular of the school's music organizations, and one of which we may well be proud.

HIVE OF ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING

The Queen Bee and Her Honey Bees

Medina High's 1947 homecoming was one of the best in many years. A record crowd of students, alumni, and friends swarmed to the stadium and saw the Bees defeat Amherst and take away a 40 to 19 victory.

Miss Betty Balogh was elected Homecoming Queen by the football squad. Her attendants were Mary Catherine Newberry and Mary Ellen Sailer. Captain "Babe" Kemp escorted the queen and Erwin Henschel and Bob Spencer, the former 1945 and 1946 captains, escorted the attendants. The band formed a heart on the football field and played "Let Me Call You Sweetheart". Queen Betty presented the football to Captain "Babe" Kemp and the game was started.

Following the game, a dance honoring the alumni was held. Ray Auker, president of the student council, crowned the Queen and all enjoyed the music of the Stardusters in the attractively decorated auditorium.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

King Bill and Queen Nadine and Court

As the fellows and gals of the classes of '48 and '49 collected in the halls of the high school on March sixth, the curtain was opened to reveal a spot light on a revolving dome and tinkling fountain. Gradually the lights grew brighter and exposed the "Silver Ballroom". The "blue star" was the theme of this very lovely banquet and prom.

The menu was written in French and there was dinner music during the banquet. Later the floor was cleared and, after a few numbers by Bob Cole and his band, the queen, king and their attendants walked across a bridge in the imaginary garden onto the dance floor to the moon, which was the throne.

As the evening progressed and finally drew to an end all the fellows and girls believed that they had really been in a "Silver Ballroom".

The Medinamite staff would like to explain some of the accomplishments of the 1947-1948 year. While putting out the paper, the staff learned how to spell better, use better English, and express oneself more clearly. Many staff members also learned to assume responsibilities and to budget valuable time. Writing for a school paper helps one get acquainted with other students, teachers, and what actually goes on in school.

One could hear a variety of comments upon stepping into the journalism class the day the first edition of its paper was printed.

"Sandy", a cartoon written by eighth-grader Gil Davenport, showed a great deal of talent. The first cartoon, for which Gil made his own comic strip and characters, appeared in the sixth issue and carried through to the end of the school year.

To give the sport fans a variety in reading material, there was "Sidelights on the Sports World" written by editor Alfred Cruthers. This column told news briefs about other students, professional sportsmen, and games in places where M. H. S. students cannot attend.

A new column called "Dinamitetts" consisted of personals and short news items. It added much to the paper by brightening up the front page.

The Medinamite policy is to please its readers, write the truth, and always have current news.

At the intermission the Flute quartet will perform.

As the curtain opens for the second part, the Girls' Glee Club I will sing a novelty number, "Oh Dear, What Can the Matter Be" arranged by Howard, followed by a Mexican folk song, "Chiapanicas." Sylvia" by Speaks and "If I Could Tell You" by Firestone will conclude the Girls' Glee Club's part of the program.

The a cappella choir will sing three selections: "Today There is Ringing" by Christiansen, "Fairest Lord Jesus," and "The Holly and the Ivy" by Bonghtion.

The climax of the program will be the choir singing "One World" by O'Hara-Bratton, accompanied by the band.

The Choralettes and the Harmonaires are scheduled to sing but as yet the numbers have not been chosen.

This program is subject to change.

G. A. A. Enjoys Browns Win

That was the afternoon of November 16. For this was the day when Miss Allen and nineteen G.A.A. members journeyed in to Cleveland to see the Cleveland Browns score a victory of 37-14 over the San Francisco Forty-Niners.

* * *

Ambitious G.A.A. members often start their Thursdays with an early morning hike. On these mornings and on their Saturday playdays they enjoy the sports of baseball, basketball, and football.

Beginner bowlers bowl on Wednesday of each week; the advanced bowlers bowl on Thursday of each week.

Planning is in progress for the second G.A.A. overnight hike for this spring.

Divided into two separate groups according to classes, the "Alpha" and the "Beta" chemistry clubs have planned and carried out a large number of interesting programs and projects.

The purpose of the clubs is to carry out experiments and projects of the members' own choosing. Among these are included library research and repairing of the laboratory.

In March the members set up a display of projects. Jim McComas successfully made rayan from filter paper, Jay Alexander and Carl Bohl tanned a fox hide, and Norma Craig and Margret Dreibelbis made ail paints. There were also soy bean and plastic projects.

In addition, these future chemists and scientists made variaus field trips and had a chemist from the Dowell Chemical Company come to speak at one of their meetings.

Dramatics Club Activities

The "Bat" Is Caught!

Diligently working to make this year one of the best for this club, its seventy members attend two meetings per month, with Carol Jacquet as adviser. One of these is of a social nature while the other is a business meeting.

Among the projects which the club members are working to sponsor are a new curtain and improvements in the lighting set-up, which comes under the supervision of technical adviser John Insprucker.

Not only does the club prepare and present productions for Medina High School but also it has begun to participate in exchange programs. This year, for the first time, the cast and crew of "Nine Girls", presented in January, were transported to Wellington High School to give a performance. In April the members will prepare a one-act play to compete in the Ohio Speech League at Columbus.

This year, for the first time also, one student alone designed an entire set. This girl was Virginia Medley, a pupil of Lena Ainsworth, who is scenic adviser to the club.

Quite a large number of the members belong to National Thespians, which is the highest honor a member can win.

The Stage Crew of "The Bat".

Future Farmers of America

The F.F.A. is an organization under the direction of O. C. Duke, the vocational agriculture teacher, with the purpose of teaching boys who intend to became farmers the best methods of modern farming.

With a number af different and interesting projects from which to choose, each boy is required to have at least one praject each year and must keep an accurate record of it.

To further supplement their text book knowledge, the boys go on field trips which teach them new methods of farming by actual contact with them.

During the past year five bays have caoperated with fertilizer companies of this area to improve pastures. Twenty-two of the boys have purebred dairy heifers and the entire group of boys participates in the vacational shop pragram making farm implements of varied types.

Not only do the boys gain knowledge from the praj-ect work but they also earn fairly large sums af money. Max Rahrbaugh's grand champion winner brought him over four hundred dollars. Others earn between six and eight hundred dollars a year.

With Ray Auker elected president, the Medina chapter of the Hi-Y club started off the 1947-1948 year, together with Dick Komjati as vice-president, Jerry Neracher as secretary-treasurer, Allen Neff chaplain, and Dean Kendall sergeant-at-arms. Bob Lincoln took over the role of adviser, replacing Mr. Insprucker.

The aim of the club is to create high standards of Christian character throughout the school and community. Members of the club are students of grades nine through twelve.

During the summer the club paid the expenses of Dick Komjati and Jerry Neracher to attend for a week an officers' training camp, located at Camp Nelson Dodd. A few weeks before this, Ray Auker was elected to be one of the county conference representatives at Grinnell, Iowa.

For club activities there was a dance at the K of P hall open to the public, also a hayride, and the task of decorating the Christmas tree in the park. The Hi-Y had several joint meetings and dances with the Y-Teens.

On November 29, Ray, Dick, and Jerry, along with Bob Lincoln, journeyed to Columbus for the forty-fourth Ohio-West Virginia area Hi-Y conference.

During Christmas vacation the club members met at the club rooms and with the help of Gabe Simon, painted the rooms and refinished the floors.

Sending the March of Dimes boxes around the county is another project on the full schedule of activities for the Hi-Y.

Junior Y-Teens

Carried on in the same manner and with the same purpose as the senior Y-Teens, this organization with Miss Marie Jackson as adviser, is one for freshman and sophomore girls.

Potluck suppers, a good grooming program, and the spring formal which is planned with the senior Y-Teens, make a busy year for its members.

The theme song which the Y-Teens have tells their purpose very well.

If we can grow as simply
As common blades of grass
Both tall and straight as trees grow to the sky
Then we can learn to know—know and understand
Ourselves and others—what we do and why,

Chorus:

We the younger generation are striving now to build a better world,
Peace and unity, freedom and brotherhood, these we set to be our goal.

A very popular club with the junior and senior girls at Medina High is senior Y-Teens, which is a subdivision of the Y.W.C.A., under the supervision of Miss Nellie Clift and Miss Mary Howey.

Activities for this year included a Christmas party for underprivileged children, caroling, a valentine dance with the Hi-Y, and most exciting of all—the Y-Teen formal.

The Christmas party was probably the most outstanding accomplishment during the whole year. At this party seventeen children from the county each received a gift from "Santa Claus" Carolyn Beattie. The girls also served refreshments for these underprivileged or crippled children.

Furnishing a fine atmosphere of hospitality, friendship and good times, the "Y" house is the gathering place for all Y-Teen meetings.

Under the direction of Mrs. Sally Westhafer, the senior girls had the opportunity to take swimming lessons at the Y.W.C.A. in Akron this year.

Girls' Leaders Club

For six years the G. L. C. or Girls' Leaders Club has worked toward leadership among not only the members of G. L. C., but among all the girls in M. H. S. Its members are to act as examples. Every new girl must be voted in by the entire faculty and the members of the club. Membership depends upon grades and character. After a one-year trial the new girl becomes a full-fledged member and receives a letter.

On Thursday the sixth period the girls meet in the gym to learn how to become good sports, better citizens, and supervisors.

G. L. C. performs several services such as taking tickets at games, serving at banquets, ushering at commencement and baccalaureate programs, and officiating at all inter-class sports events for girls.

G. A. A. Activities

On the first Tuesday of each month some one hundred and ten members of the Girls' Athletic Association meet with their president, Betty Ann Houseman.

While these ambitious girls undertake one big event each month and participate in many sports such as bowling, swimming, skating, and overnight hikes, they plan the activity that highlights the year—the G.A.A. football banquet.

Truly a great factor in the promotion of good citizenship, this organization is one of the largest at Medina High School.

If one saw several girls wandering around with big smiles on their faces, following the annual G.A.A. homecoming on December 23, one might correctly guess that they had received their letters. These girls, after three years spent earning their 1,500 points, won this coveted G.A.A. recognition. There may be some places where letters are given away but one may be sure that these girls earned theirs.

Jacque Hetrick and Dave Westland have perfected a new athletic game—a cambinatian af faotball, boxing, and wrestling. Gene Hanshue and Dean Kendall have perfected a technique far this game and have sald it to Ohia State's Athletic Directars Bab McDonald and Babe Kemp, who with engineer Bob Gilsdorf, are planning to build a new stadium for the spart.

Narma Clark, a new movie persanality will ca-star with Ken Marvin. The film will feature a new idea in photography develaped for use on the Al Leidig Projectars. Others to hit Hollywoad are Esther Pritchard wha achieved stardom in the role of a librarian, Bab Kennard (the new "Thin Man"), Joan Kruggel, nated camedienne, and Marjarie Hunter, currently seen in "Harsie Come Home". Ernest Szaniszlo is M-G-M's head writer.

Turning ta the saciety pages we find Nadine Christian and Adrian Rooy. Well—you knaw what happened here! Amang the June brides of 1955 we find Louise Fetzer, Marian Spice, Mary Lau Inman, Delores Hamric, and Delares Orth.

Elizabeth Poar and Betty Balogh have signed with the Barbara Smith Model Agency. Bath will speciolize in beach wear.

The fashian magazine "Schmaltz" annaunces Caroline Andersan as its new editor-in-chief replacing Caralyn Beattie wha has achieved reknown in the field of abstract painting with her famous "Dead Dandelion With Eye" done in oils (crankcase and mineral).

Marge Wallace, noted Police Cammissioner, last week jailed Beatrice "Red" Nixan an charges of communism. Miss Nixan has been released far lack af evidence.

The newly-organized Mora Bawling Alley, Inc., is finding a lat of campetition in the Killinger-Shanawer-Emerson Raller Rink.

Bernice Koehler annaunces the opening af her Beauty Salon. Her assistants include Jean Anderson, Belva Buchanan, and Phyllis Burton.

We notice the ad fram the Beshire Fruit Market. We understand that Jim alsa plays professional basketball with the St. Louis Bulldozers.

Several of our ald friends have made good in the sparts world in one way ar anather. The Cleveland Browns are paying $18,000 annually ta Miss Lucas and Mr. Miner far their services as chief cheerleaders.

The new U. S. ambassadar to Mexico is Colleen Handley and her stenagraphers are Mary Duplaga and Lela Smith.

Louis Upton has cornered the market on drape pants and his shop an Fifth Avenue has again been expanded by the K. West and B. Huffman Construction Campany ta take care af the demand. And right araund the carner we notice that Dick Wirkner, used-car tycaon, has on display an antique madel sedan.

Deb Dean has again, for the third cansecutive year, taken all prizes in the local dog show with her Skye Blue terriers. Miss Dean is a noted dag lecturer and enthusiast.

Our Congratulations!

THERE IS

A FUTURE IN INDUSTRY FOR YOU

To those who plan to enter industry directly as a freshman without advanced study, why not see what future PERMOLD might have for you.

To those who plan to enter college as a freshman with employment in industry as the final goal, PERMOLD will be glad to suggest the type of study that may be most desirable and profitable for advancement when you finish college and enter industry as a freshman.

PERMOLD'S management will be glad to grant anyone of you an appointment for such interviews.

E. G. Fahlman
President
THE PERMOLD CO.
Medina, Ohio.

Congratulations and Best Wishes

To the Class of 1948

As you leave high school and face the choice of a life work, may we urge you to consider the building trade as a career. Medina needs skilled people, both men and women, to build the community of tomorrow. No other field offers greater opportunity. No other work is more satisfying in its accomplishment.
